Men's Cordovan Shoes
are genuine Shell Cordovan in spite of the low price

$8.50

There is a disposition in some quarters to question the genuineness of a Cordovan shoe at $8.50 per pair.

We don't blame anybody for being skeptical, for a Cordovan shoe at this price is certainly selling out of line.

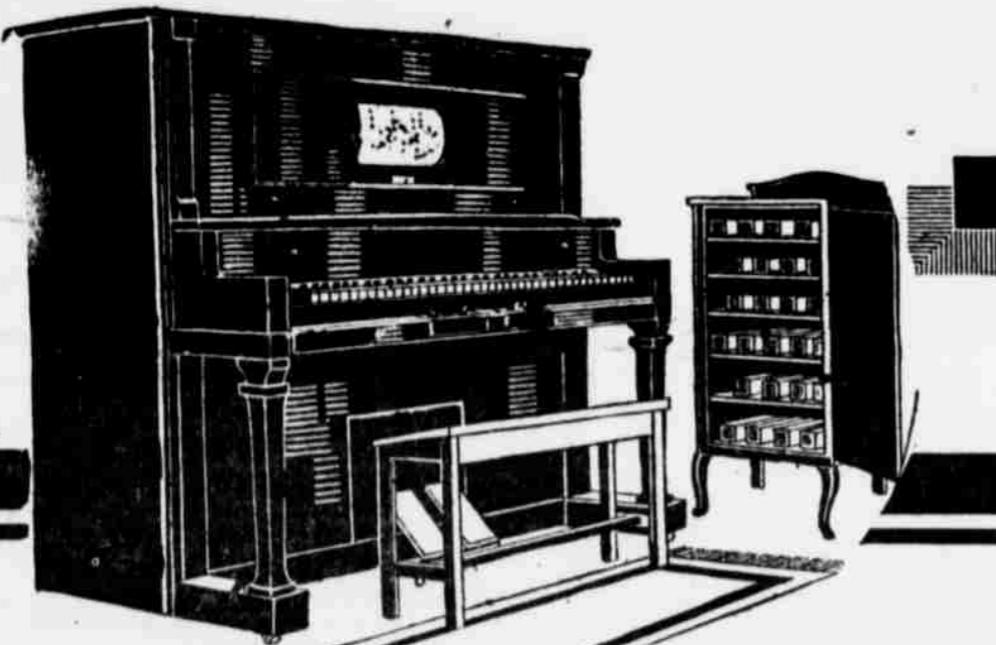

But the fact remains, these Cordovans are made of hand-shaved genuine shell Cordovan, and it takes a team of horses to make $17.00 worth!

Other Cordovans $9.50 to $11.00

How to Get Mail To Soldiers at Front And Pass the Censors

If you are thinking of writing to one of Uncle Sam's soldiers or sailors, and, of course, you are here are a few suggestions by a Marine Corps official that will do far toward getting your letter to its destination.

Do not criticize or abuse the President or any branch of the Government.

Do not criticize or abuse any foreign Government, neutral or otherwise.

Do not make any reference to troops, commanding officers, warships or other vessels.

Place your name and address at the upper left corner of the envelope or wrapper of package. Address letter or gift with name and title if any of the person to whom you write, giving company, regiment or ship. If the letter is destined for Europe send it to "American Expeditionary Forces."

The German people, and particularly the German workers, are not adequately represented in their Government nor are they accorded opportunities of agencies for the expression of their will.

"We feel sure that if the German people were untrammeled and could express their true nature that the policies of the German Government would be fundamentally changed.

There are in Germany those who understand this issue between the principles of power and the principles of freedom, and it is our heartfelt hope that faithful leaders of humanity may do their work with such wisdom and effectiveness as to democratize German political institutions, making them responsible to the will of the German people made free."

The Convention instructed the Executive Committee to carry the verdict rendered against the Mine workers for $800,000 in Ft. Smith, Ark., to the United States Supreme Court if necessary.

DEMOCRACY WORKS IN GERMANY TO END RULE OF KAISERISM

Gompers Says Powerful Influences Are Being Directed to Give People More Power.

HUFFMAN, Nov. 22.—Unqualified approval of the strong political offensive against Germany was voted by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor at the convention here to-day.

He believes there are powerful influences at work carrying on the task of demoralizing Kaiserism in Germany. He urged American support of those influences and wished them God speed in their undertaking.

of the Adjustment Committee to-day, the Committee on Education was prepared to submit to the convention of the American Federation of Labor recommendations on several important resolutions, including one protesting against the change in rates on second class postage proposed in the War Revenue law.

The resolution, which calls on Congress to amend the law, was submitted to delegates representing the photographers, the printing pressmen, stereotypers, bookbinders, the Typographical Union and the International Allied Printing Trades Association.

They assert that the change in rates will not raise revenue, but actually destroy business from which the Government seeks revenue.

WILL ENFORCE NEW TAXI LAW DESPITE SERVICE BOARD

License Commissioner Bell Declares Any Evasions Will Bring Arrests.

License Commissioner Bell will ignore the Public Service Commission, which seeks to usurp the right of the Board of Aldermen to regulate hacks operating out of railroad terminals, steamship piers and ferries. If any official or driver of the Westcott Express Company, which enjoys a private hack privilege, shows a disposition to regard the Public Service Commission as his only authority, he will immediately be arrested.

"I shall insist that every provision of the ordinance be amended recently by the Board of Aldermen be strictly adhered to," said Commissioner Bell. "Westcott drivers or officials who seek to evade any provision of the ordinance will immediately be arrested. It is immaterial to me what action the Public Service Commission may take, for I do not believe it has any business to interfere with public hacks. The courts have repeatedly held that only the Aldermen have a right to regulate vehicles that are public cabs and use the public streets.

Whatever plans the Westcott Company may have for the future, it must be seen to that that its officials have shown a disposition to gracefully come under the License Department regulations. Its drivers are submitting to the finger-printing and other methods to keep crooks off the seats of cabs, and the company has installed cards in all cabs announcing that each rated and regulated hack is private. Furthermore, the districts most frequently covered by the Westcott cabs are checked off into miles and fractions thereof.

"Of course, all this arrangement is but temporary. Yesterday officials of the company held a conference with taxi meter makers and I am expecting to negotiate to-day on the style of meter adopted. This meter selected will have to be passed upon by the License Department.

"I have heard that at the last moment the Westcott Company may balk at the baggage carrying provision and the rule against permitting a driver's seat to accommodate more than one person. I will recall that when The Evening World began its fight against the Taxicab Trust there was very strenuous objection by the taxicab companies to the single seat clause. But the police proved that under the old order of things the extra seat was often occupied by a confederate of a crooked chauffeur, who lent a hand in beating and robbing taxi patrons.

"It is for this reason that I shall insist that all Westcott cab seats be cut to regulation size, not because I believe that the drivers are not honest, but because other car owners have been equally in city regulation which knows no favorites. I shall also insist that the Westcott cabs carry baggage as do other public hacks."
